1. RIGHT OF ACCESS TO INFORMATION

1.1 Introduction

The 1996 South African Constitution, by providing a statutory right of access on request to any record held by the state as well as access to records held by private bodies, entrenches the fundamental right to access to information.

The Promotion of Access to Information Act 2 of 2000 (“the Act”), which came into effect on 9 March 2001, seeks to advance the values of transparency and accountability in South Africa and provides the mechanism for requesters to exercise and protect their constitutional right to request access to a record.

The Act establishes the following statutory rights of requesters to any record of a private body if:

- That record is required for the exercise or protection of any of his or her legal rights
- That requester complies with all the procedural requirements; and
- Access is not refused regarding any ground referred to in the Act.

In terms of the Act private bodies are required to publish a manual to assist requesters who wish to request access to a record.

1.2 Availability of the Company PAIA Manual and entry point for requests

This document serves as the PAIA Manual (“the Manual”) for TIP-TOP MILK (PTY) LTD (“the Company”) in accordance with the requirements of section 51 of the Act to facilitate access to records held by the Company.

A copy of this Manual is available to any public person in a PDF (“Portable Document Format”) version on the Company website at www.tiptopfoodsgroup.co.za or on request from the Information Officer referred to in this Manual.

The Company endorses the spirit of the Act and believes that this Manual will assist requesters in exercising their rights.

In summary, the Manual provides information on the following:

- Contact details of the Information Officer.
- Structure and functions of the Company.
- Subjects and categories of records that are held by the Company; and
- Procedure that needs to be followed and criteria that must be met by a requester to request access to a record.

1.3 Who may request access to information

The Act provides that a requester is only entitled to access to a record if the record is required for the exercise or protection of a right. Only requests for access to a record, where the requester has satisfied the Information Officer that the record is required to exercise or protect a right, will be considered. A requester may act in different capacities in requesting a record.

This will influence the amount to be charged when a request has been lodged.

Requesters may request the following:

- A personal requester who requests a record about him/herself
- An agent requester who requests a record on behalf of someone else with that person's consent and where it is required for the protection of that person's legal right
- A third-party requester who requests a record about someone else with that person's consent and where it is required for the protection of that person's legal right; and
- A public body that may request a record if:
 - It fulfills the requirements of procedural compliance
 - The record is required for the exercise or protection of a right; and
 - No grounds for refusal exist.

1.4 Contact details for the Company Information Officer

If access is requested to a record that contains information about a third party, the Company is obliged to attempt to contact this third party to inform them of the request.

This enables the third party the opportunity to respond by either consenting to the access or by providing reasons why the access should be denied. If the third party furnishes reasons for the support or denial of access, the Information Officer will consider these reasons in determining whether access should be granted, or not.

1.6 Guidance to requesters as prepared by the Information Regulator

5. ACCESS PROCEDURES AND REQUESTS

The purpose of this section is to provide requesters with sufficient guidelines and procedures to facilitate a request for access to a record held by the Company.

IMPORTANT. Requests for access to personal information as contemplated in the Protection for Personal Information Act no. 4 of 2013 are dealt with and prescribed in terms of the Company's Data Subject Access Request Policy, which can be obtained from Mr Mr D. De Jager (Information Officer), Telephone: 056 555 0025, e-mail: support@tiptopmilk.com. Annexure B is to be completed and submitted to the Company.

It is important to note that an application for access to information can be refused if the application does not comply with the procedural requirements of the Act. In addition, the successful completion and submission of an access request form does not automatically allow the requester access to the requested record.

An application for access to a record is subject to certain limitations if the requested record falls within a certain category as specified within Part 3 Chapter 4 of the Act.

If it is reasonably suspected that the requester has obtained access to the Company's records through the submission of materially false or misleading information, legal proceedings may be instituted against such requester.

5.1 Guidance on prescribed Request for Access Form

For the Company to facilitate access to a record a requester will need to complete the prescribed Request to Access a Record Form attached as Annexure A. The prescribed form must be completed in full. Failure to do so will result in the process being delayed until all information is provided.

The Company will not be held liable for delays due to receipt of incomplete forms. Due cognizance should be taken of the following instructions when completing the form because the Information Officer shall not process any request for access to a record until satisfied that all requirements have been met.

Proof of identity is required to authenticate the requester's identity. If the requester acts as an agent requester, the requester shall provide proof of the identity of the person on whose behalf the request is made, the authority or mandate given to the requester by such person, and proof of the identity of the requester as provided above.

- Type or print in BLOCK LETTERS an answer to every question.
- If a question does not apply, state "N/A" in response to that question.
- If there is nothing to disclose in reply to a particular question, state "nil" in response to that question.
- If there is insufficient space on a printed form in which to answer a question, additional information may be provided on an additional folio attached to the form.
- When the use of an additional folio is required, precede each answer thereon with the title applicable to that question.

5.2 Submission of prescribed Request for Access to a Record Form

The completed Request for Access to a Record Form must be submitted either via conventional mail, e-mail, or fax and must be addressed to the Information Officer.

5.3 Payment of prescribed Fees

Payment details can be obtained from the Information Officer and payment can be made either via a direct deposit (no credit card payments are accepted). Proof of payment must be supplied. Four types of fees are provided for in terms of the Act:

- Request fee: An initial, non-refundable fee is payable on submission. This fee does not apply to personal requesters, referring to any person seeking access to records that contain their personal information.
- Reproduction fee: This fee is payable concerning all records that are automatically available.
- Access fee: If the access request is successful an access fee may be required to reimburse the Company for the costs involved in the search, reproduction, and/or preparation of the record and will be calculated based on the Prescribed Fees.
- Deposit: A deposit of one-third (1/3) of the amount of the applicable access fee, is payable if the Company receives a request for access to information held on a person other than the requester himself/herself and the preparation for the record will take more than six (6) hours. If access is refused to the requested record, the full deposit will be refunded to the requester.

5.4 Notification

The Company will within thirty (30) days of receipt of the request decide whether to grant or decline the request and give notice with reasons (if required) to that effect.

The thirty (30) day period within which the Company has to decide whether to grant or refuse the request, may be extended for a further period of not more than thirty (30) days, if the request is for a large volume of information, or the request requires a search for information held at another office of the Company and the information cannot be reasonably obtained within the original thirty (30) day period. The Company will notify the requester in writing should an extension be sought.

5.5 Records that cannot be found or do not exist

If the Company has searched for a record and it is believed that the record either does not exist or cannot be found, the requester will be notified by way of an affidavit or affirmation. This will include the steps that were taken to try to locate the record.

6. GROUNDS FOR REFUSAL OF ACCESS TO RECORDS AND APPEAL

6.1 Grounds for Refusal

The thirty (30) day period within which the Information Officer is required to reply to a request, as stipulated in the Act, shall commence only once a requester has complied with all the requirements of the Act in requesting access to a record, to the satisfaction of the Information Officer.

Requests may be refused on the following grounds, as set out in the Act:

- Mandatory protection of privacy of a third party who is a natural person, including a deceased person, which would involve the unreasonable disclosure of personal information of that natural person
- Mandatory protection of commercial information of a third party or the Company, if the record contains:
 - Trade secrets of the third party or the Company
 - Financial, commercial, scientific, or technical information which disclosure could likely cause harm to the financial or commercial interests of the third party or the Company; and Information disclosed in confidence by a third party to the Company if the
 - Disclosure could put that third party at a disadvantage or commercial competition.
 - Mandatory protection of certain confidential information of a third party if disclosure of the record would result in a breach of a duty of confidence owed to that party in terms of an agreement
- Mandatory protection of the safety of individuals, and the protection of property

- Mandatory protection of records privileged from production in legal proceedings, unless the legal privilege has been waived; and
- Mandatory protection of research information of a third party and the Company.

6.2 Appeal

If a requester is aggrieved by the refusal of the Information Officer to grant a request for a record, the requester may, within thirty (30) days of notification of the Information Officer's decision, apply to the court for appropriate relief.
